LEADERSHIP MANAGEMENT MOTIVATION

Our clients say it best....

"...Kendall Wright was amazing! He was the highlight of our session and people are still talking about it! He was the "Wright" man at the right time for the right audience."

Bill McAlpine

Dell Senior HR Mgr I/T Learning and Development

"...Your words of motivation and inspiration were truly uplifting. Expectations were exceeded beyond measure according to the numerous comments we received from members of the 1000-plus audience..."

Elliott L. Gregory, Administrator

Life Skills Center

"...The content of your presentation, the way you connected with our members through the illustrations and your passion toward leadership made our July luncheon a special event for our members. Their gratitude was shown by the standing ovation you received at its conclusion!"

Joseph A Hinson, President & CEO

West Chester Chamber Alliance

"...Your commanding presence before an audience is a real gift, because it enables you to do just that! There should be more 'Kendall Wrights' running around."

John Dodsworth

Sterling Capital Services, Inc.

"...It's extremely difficult in this day and age to present a unique speech about our soldiers and their mission overseas; you accomplished this and then some. There are few people that could have provided the motivation that you did that day. We could not have found anyone better and what you spoke about was right on target."

Sergeant First Class, James D. Robbins

Ohio Army National Guard

"...Your energy and message encouraged and motivated students toward unity, empowerment, and leadership. In a time when young people are negatively enticed and encouraged to give up on their dreams, it is good to know that people like you serve as mentors, to motivate and train them to aspire to reach their highest potential."

Sandra D. Moore, Special Assistant to the Provost
Eastern Kentucky University

What's your favorite song?

Now envision your song performed by a less-than-talented American idol contestant. The "Wright" presenter makes all the difference. You need a presenter who can (and will) connect with your audience. Kendall C. Wright connects with thousands of participants each year.

Mr. Wright positions the challenges of business/life in a "can do" perspective, thereby helping individuals find the motivation they need to Aspire, Cultivate, and Test. That's why he's known as "The Actualizer."

Perhaps it's time to experience a presenter who is equally as passionate as he is knowledgeable!
